

SKIDEAL PRIVACY POLICY

Skideal respect the privacy of its members, and is bound by the Privacy Act (1988). This policy sets out how Skideal collects, uses and discloses personal information of its users which it holds.

By accessing or using the SKideal site you agree to the use and disclosure of your personal information in the manner described in this policy.

Information

Personal information collected by Skideal may include:

- your name, address and contact details
- bank account and credit account details
- user ID's and passwords
- records of communications with Skideal

How information is collected

Skideal collects personal information from you when you communicate and/or provide information directly to Skideal whether electronically or otherwise.

How Skideal may use personal information

Your personal Information may be used to manage services including, customer service and billing, to develop and improve Skideal services, to conduct surveys to determine use and satisfaction with Skideal, to generate statistics in relation to use of the Skideal site, and for purposes connected with the operation of the Skideal site. Other than as set out in this policy, your personal information will not be used by Skideal without your consent.

How personal information is disclosed

Skideal may disclose personal information to individuals and organizations, including Skideal staff, the public, individuals and organisations that advertise with Skideal.

How to access your personal information

If you wish to access your personal information please click on the "contact us" link at the bottom of this page. Please remember to provide as much detail as you can as this will help us to find the information and to verify your identity. There is no charge for this service.

Changes to policy

This policy may change over time. All changes will be published on this website.